Tony was good about scheduling follow up appointments to see properties, for our own fact-finding purposes. Also Tony was not NEVER pushy, and let me choose a property I liked, in my own time. He showed great patience when deadlines were missed, and arbitrated on my behalf due to unexpected delays by the seller.

Last Saturday I made one of the most difficult and heartrending decisions of my life when I put my dog Sophie to rest. She had given me 10 years of the most amazing unconditional love I have ever experienced. As companions, sidekicks, friends, and buddies, we had traveled to Miami, Cape Cod, New York and Philadelphia. Our times together were the best of the best. Many of you knew Sophie in person or from this column. She was sassy at times but always loyal to my friends and family. Sophie was like a Granddaughter to my Mom. Unlike the rest of the world, Sophie never judged me. Whenever I returned home after a long day, she always greeted me with excitement. Amazingly she also taught me the importance of love, acceptance, and sharing. She was a constant source of strength and understanding during tough times. Now when I wake up or come home at night, Sophie is no longer there. My Mom too feels the loss. Before bed she would always say “Nightly night, Sophie, Gram will see you in the morning”. On Saturday we drove to the Vet’s, our last time together. Before the end, I cut a piece of her hair as a cherished reminder of her life, energy and love. The Vet’s assistant put the hair in a little bottle with a big heart and Sophie written on the front. Everyone tells me to remember the great times I had with Sophie and I truly do. All I can say is that my heart is broken, but I thank her for helping me to love again. “DOG” spelled backward is “GOD”. I truly believe that GOD created dogs for people to understand and receive unquestioned LOVE.
